

Dr. K.B. — an award-winning academician and consultant trainer, with 10+ years' experience in diverse skill management

Dr. K.B. is a reputed trainer based in Noida, India, who has more than a decade of experience in training large and diverse groups across multiple industry sectors. Her competencies range from soft-skills enhancement — including behavioral and managerial training — to essential business skills, such as organisational development, change management and transactional analysis.

Having worked in full capacity with several MNCs in their HR and technical divisions, K.B. began her journey as a consultant trainer in 2015. During her corporate tenure, K.B displayed exceptional leadership skills, pioneering technical/business initiatives and leading them to success. She has also won multiple appreciations from leading companies for her contributions to the L&D space.